

World Fashions To Highlight CDA Show

Colorful Mexico, gay Paree, romantic Italy and all the countries of the world will be the delightful theme for the "Bon Voyage" fashion show to be sponsored by the Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America on Thursday Sept. 27 at 8 p.m. at Nativity Parish Hall. Mrs. Gerald Revell is chairman of the event.

Stork Shower For Mrs. Fine

Members of the Torrance Rebekah Lodge gathered at the home of Mrs. Floella Whitaker to honor Mrs. Mary Fine with a stork shower on Friday evening.

The table was beautifully decorated in blue and pink with an open umbrella over the stork cake of pink, blue, green and yellow. The nut cups were in the form of folded diapers and the napkins were made in the shape of tiny baby sacs.

Those present were: Mmes. Pearl Welch, Clara Montoya, Stella Norris, Belva Brase, Angeline Disario, Susie Walker, Eugenia Johnson, Rosy Shepherd, Marie Fischer, Clara Woodson, Jeanette O'Morie and the hostess, Mrs. Whitaker.

Those sending gifts but unable to attend were: Mmes. Maud Milburn, Ellen Smith, Katherine Vash, Christine Ferguson, Ruth Deems, Patricia Young, Winifred Brase, Dona Nelson, Shirley Leetz, Christine Cleveland, Retta Nelson and Pauline Smart.

Republicans Stage Meet

Republicans Unlimited held a regular meeting Sept. 19, at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Ave. I, Redondo Beach, 8 p.m.

A panel discussion of current issues included finance education and foreign policy.

Alice Madden, who attended the Republican National Convention at the Cow Palace in San Francisco, gave some highlights of the convention. Coffee was served.

A large bus was chartered by Republicans Unlimited, to take members and friends to the big rally in Whittier, when Vice President Richard Nixon officially started the presidential election campaign "get out the votes" of all Republicans. The date of the rally was Sept. 18.

Large posters of the foreign countries provided by Trans-World Airlines will decorate the hall. Programs are also festive with foreign country scenes. The newest in fashions from popular designers will be provided by local merchants and a set of Sampsonite luggage will be awarded as the main door prize in keeping with the travel theme.

Mrs. Sidney Miller will be the commentator giving the new details, fabrics and colors that are being shown on the fashion front. Members of the court who will do the modeling are Mmes. Frank Cavanaugh, Cele Young, James Fornelli, Alice Hardesty and Mary Barrett. Children's fashions will be modeled by Ronald and Jimmie Forester and Gayle and Claudia Hardesty.

Teenage fashions promise to be an interesting highlight of the style parade when a green and blue plaid David Crystal suit will be modeled, a black and white tweed coat, skirts and sweaters, new polished cottons and velvets and felts with accompanying jewelry.

Serving as co-chairman of this event with Mrs. Revell are Mrs. John McVey and Mrs. Leroy Armstrong.

General committee consists of Mrs. James Fornelli, chairman, Mmes. Pat Sargent, Jean Bryant, Katherine Dugan, Gertrude Bailey, Adeline Cemore, and Ruth Janasik.

A salad course will be served at the close of the show.

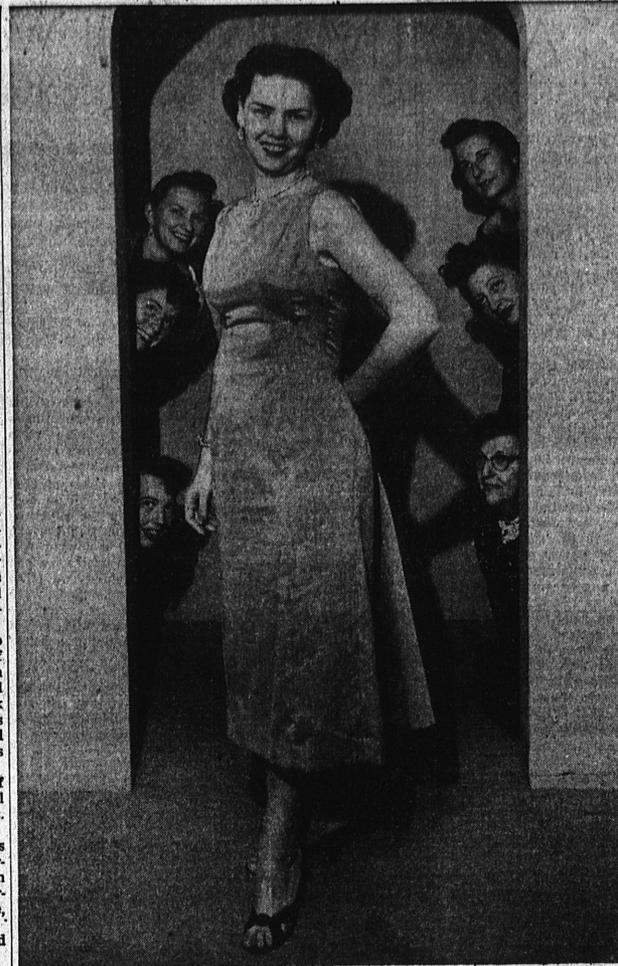

Rebekahs Plan Sale

Plans are being made by members of the Torrance Rebekah Lodge to hold a rummage sale in the old City Hall building on Cravens Ave. Saturday, Sept. 22. Anyone having any articles they wish to donate to the organization may call either Mrs. Eugenia Johnson, Mrs. Clara Woodson, or Mrs. Belva Brase, or any member of the lodge.

Other activities concerning the lodge in the very near future is the initiation to be held at the Lodge Hall in the Torrance Masonic Temple, 2336 Cabrillo Ave., on Sept. 28, when a class of six members will be received into the order. Mrs. Fronia Branaugh reported on the bazaar that is to be held in November.

The Vice Grand, Mrs. Maud Milburn reported that the paper and rag drive is still in full swing and that she has turned into the treasury from this source alone almost $225.

The Goodfellowship Chairman, Mrs. Patricia Young gave a report on the doings of the Refrigerator Project of the State President and told that

Church Group Has Party

Senior High Fellowship of the First Presbyterian Church in Gardena met at 5:30 in the home of Miss Sonya Carlson at 16004 Denker Ave. A delicious buffet dinner was served in the patio by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carlson. A beautifully decorated birthday cake was served with ice cream which concluded the very excellent dinner. The group enjoyed playing many new games in the patio followed by a short business meeting. Bill Mason and Sonya Carlson gave reports on Commissioned Conference Camp at Big Bear which they attended the first week in September.

Thirty-six guests sang the Fellowship Hymn at the close of the evening. Those attending were Mary Burnam, Judy Heron, Jim Hoffmann, Susie Caspell, Floyd Clark, Jim Roberts, the Refrigerator Project of the State President and told that

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sleeth, accompanied by their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Sleeth and sons Mark and Jeff, spent four days recently at Big Bear.

Mrs. Newman To Entertain Sisterhood

Temple Menorah Sisterhood will have its first regular meeting of the year on Monday, Sept. 24, 8:30 p.m., at 112 1/2 N. Catalina, Redondo Beach.

There will be a short business meeting presided over by Mrs. Henry Kappapot, president, at which time the organization's plans for the year will be outlined.

Following the meeting, the group will be privileged to hear Mrs. Harry Newman, a gifted singer, who will present a medley of famous Jewish folk songs.

Mrs. Newman, who sings professionally under the name of Faye Satton, has appeared on the concert stage throughout the middle west and Canada. Her repertoire is diverse ranging from Grand Opera and operetta to musical comedy. She has also made appearances on radio and television and has done dramatic work in summer stock productions.

Mrs. Bernard Rivo, program chairman, says that "all attending will have a delightful adventure in the field of music in store for them."

Hostesses for the evening are Mmes. Gene Alfred, Sy Aman, Bernard Becker and Jack Bozeman.

For further information call Mrs. Al Kurz, 414 Calle de Felipe, Torrance.
